

EL SALVADOR & HONDURAS 3rd SOLIDARITY & FOOD SOVEREIGNTY DELEGATION

February 6th – 16th, 2027

Hosted by the small farmer organizations from international farmer movement CLOC/La Via Campesina
Federación de Cooperativas de la Reforma Agraria de la Región Central (FECORACEN)
& Central Nacional de Trabajadores del Campo (CNTC)

Join us for this unique opportunity to visit organizations of the world's largest peasant movement, La Via Campesina.

This delegation will take place in two countries that are part of the Mesoamerican region, known for the traditional milpa planting system based around corn, beans, and squash. We will begin our journey along the Pacific Ocean on lands tilled by peasant cooperatives as part of El Salvador's agrarian reform. Today these farms serve as sites for national and regional training processes in agroecology for the Via Campesina movement. Our delegation will then travel to Honduras to visit communities living on lands recovered from terratenientes (large corporate landholders) and who grow on diversified plots with coffee, fruits, vegetables, and animals. Participants will see first-hand in both countries the challenges of the current political context and what popular organizations are doing to defend and feed their communities.

Joining the delegation will be representatives from Via Campesina organizations in the region.

BASIC PROGRAM:

Saturday February 6th: arrivals to San Salvador International Airport

Sunday February 7th – Wednesday February 10th program in El Salvador hosted by FECORACEN

Thursday February 11th: travel from El Salvador to Honduras

Friday February 12th – Monday February 15th: program in Honduras hosted by CNTC

Tuesday February 16th: return trips from Comayagua Palmerola International Airport and/or onward destinations

APPLY TO JOIN US:

- We encourage members of popular, farmer, social, or solidarity organizations to apply for this delegation.
- We also invite students and teachers or other staff of educational centers (schools, universities, etc.).
- Ideal participants for this delegation are people who are prepared to work in the countryside, work in groups, and have a focus on solidarity and internationalism.
- Participants must be committed to share what they have learned with their organizations or educational centers of origin.
- Each participant must fill out an application form to be reviewed by the organizing team (link below).

Application Form in English & Spanish:

<https://tinyurl.com/MesoamericaDelegationFeb2027>

Cost: Delegation cost is $1,400. This cost includes lodging, meals, internal transportation, airport pick-up, Spanish-English interpretation during formal activities, and program. It does not include international airfare or personal expenses. We will contact those confirmed to participate in the delegation to inform you of the different options for payment through our fiscal sponsor.

Questions?

Write to brigadas.clocclc.mesoamerica@proton.me

